Procedure to Import Firearms into THAILAND

1. Competitor will have to fill the information on the Application for Firearm and Ammunition import permit form. (The serial number on the actual firearm must exactly match the serial number on the permit application. If there are any discrepancies, the firearm will not be allowed into Thailand.)
2. Prepare a photocopy of your passport, sign the photocopy and send by mail or scan and e-mail with the firearm import form.
3. Organizer will apply for the temporary import permit and will get it before competitor arrives in Thailand.
4. We will set up a match booth in Suvarnabhumi International Airport arrival hall (after you have passed immigration formality). All competitors will be met by our police officer who take you through customs to import your firearms.
5. After the firearms have been checked against the permit (serial number, caliber), the police will take your firearms and issue a document for you to redeem your guns at the store room in the match head quarter hotel.
6. Competitors who stay at the match head quarter hotel may keep their firearms in their rooms through out the match and return to the store room at the end of the match. Competitors who stay at other hotels must redeem their firearms at the store room in the match head quarter hotel each morning, compete and return it to the store room at the end of each day.
7. After the match, our police officer will bring your firearms back to the Suvarnabhumi International Airport and will meet you at the the check in counter for your departure flight. Here there will be a quick customs check and then you can check your firearm in with the airline.
